

I bought my XM Radio specifically for the traffic and weather updates since I reside outside of Philadelphia... There are more important issues today than whether or not the NAB is happy. The NAB should be concerned w/ some of its own members before being critical of other organizations... XM is here to stay...